Blow your Horn

Mrs. Michal Porath-Zibman

In the middle of Parshat Behaalotcha, the Torah records the story of the command to Moshe to construct the 'chatzotzrot', the trumpets. The point of these trumpets was to blow them at assigned times. For example, in Psukim 8-9 of Perek 10, the Torah tells us as follows:"If you are going to war against the enemy in your land....you should blow the trumpets and you will be remembered before G-d.....On days of joy and festivals....you should blow the trumpets...and it will be a reminder for G-d".
