Time to Act

Rav Zvi Ron

In this week's parsha we read of the disastrous consequences of Korach's rebellion against the leadership of Moshe and Aharon. Korach and his followers were swallowed by the earth (16:31-33) or burned alive (16:35). Remarkably, Korach's own family was not destroyed. The Torah specifically states that the sons of Korach did not die (26:11). How is it that Korach's own children did not join him in his rebellion?
